"Antonio Iturrioz has performed a wonderful service to music lovers in general and pianophiles in particular, by producing this lovingly researched film."

- Marc-Andre Hamelin, pianist

"Many bravos to Antonio Iturrioz for giving us this wonderfully informative and much-needed documentary on one of our under appreciated and greatest musicians, Leopold Godowsky. It allows us to again remember the legendary life and career of this brilliantly unique pianist, composer, and arranger, and his immeasurably important contributions to the world of music."

- Byron Janis, pianist

"I enjoyed your film very much. You did a great job of putting it all together. A splendid accomplishment!"

- Gary Graffman, pianist
